Part A

Situation: You are Jackie, a Secondary 6 student at Hong Kong College. You and your group mate, Josephine, are going to do a class presentation next month on the deeds of successful people. There are in total four tasks for you to do.

Follow the instructions in the Question-Answer Book and on the recording to complete the tasks. You will find all the information you need in the Question-Answer Book, the Data File and on the recording.

You have two minutes to familiarize yourself with Tasks 1-4 before the recording begins. Later you will have five minutes to study Part B and the Data File to complete the Tasks in Section 1 or 2.

Task 1 12 marks

You and Josephine decide to focus on studying the profiles of some successful entrepreneurs. Listen to the conversation and fill in your note sheet below.

You have 30 seconds to study the note-headings. At the end of the task, you will have one and a half minutes to tidy up your answers.

Jackie: Hey Josephine, let's kick it off with outstanding entrepreneurs in Hong Kong as we should have a better understanding of them.

Josephine: Sure, Jackie! Li Ka Shing is definitely a must-mention person.

Jackie: Right, but I don't really know much about him. What about you?

Josephine: I've just read some articles about him. Let me tell you the stuff I know... er...why don't you jot down some notes for our future reference?

Jackie: Yeah, no problem.

Josephine: This business tycoon was born in China on July 29, 1928.

Jackie: Wow, that means he is over eighty already! He still looks very energetic to me.
